

18-36264-1

Serial - 3

Variable: Characteristic which varies from one unit to another.

Types of Variables:

Qualitative Variable: Variable that cannot be by numerical figure.

* gender

* religion.

* color.

Quantitative Variable: Variable which are measured by numerical figure

* time

* age

* weight

Discrete variable: Variable that accepts only integer values.

example: Number specified object/group/class

Continuous Variable: Variable that take both integer and fractional value.